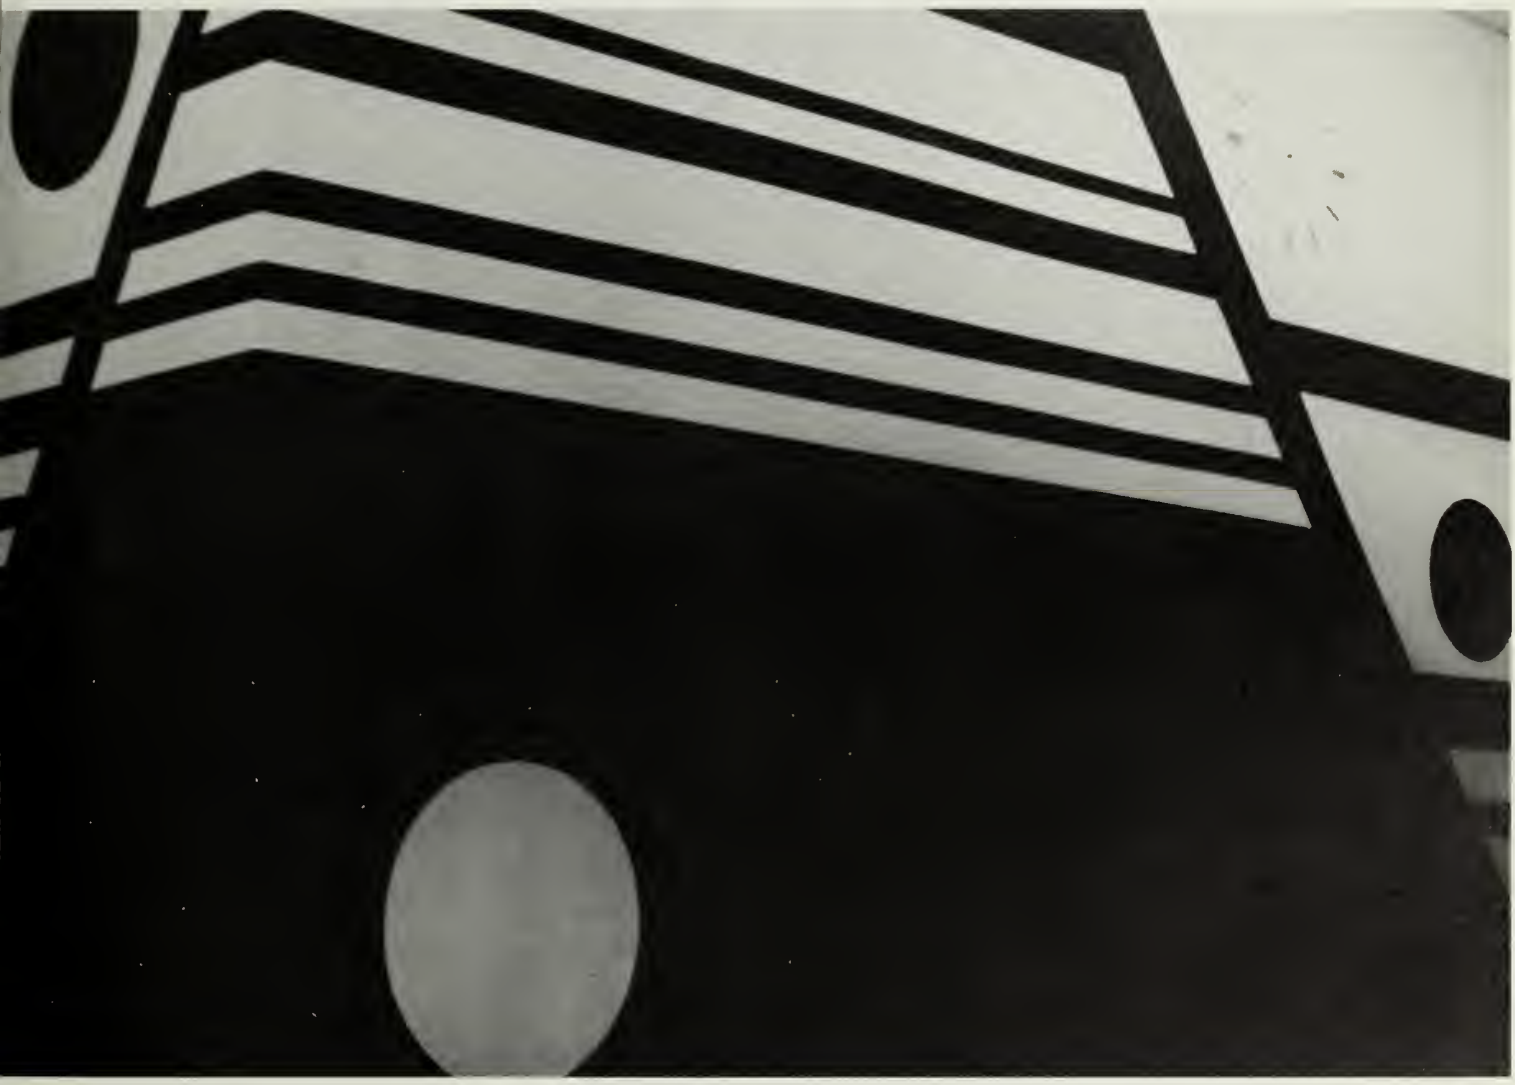
EDWARD A SULLIVAN



SSC

he day when grief becomes small. he day when joy becomes great...

Needing a quiet place
To collect my thoughts
I took a walk Alone.
And saw reflections of beauty.

Gathering together.
Expressions of dissent.
Listening to viewpoints
That tell of a need To demonstrate.
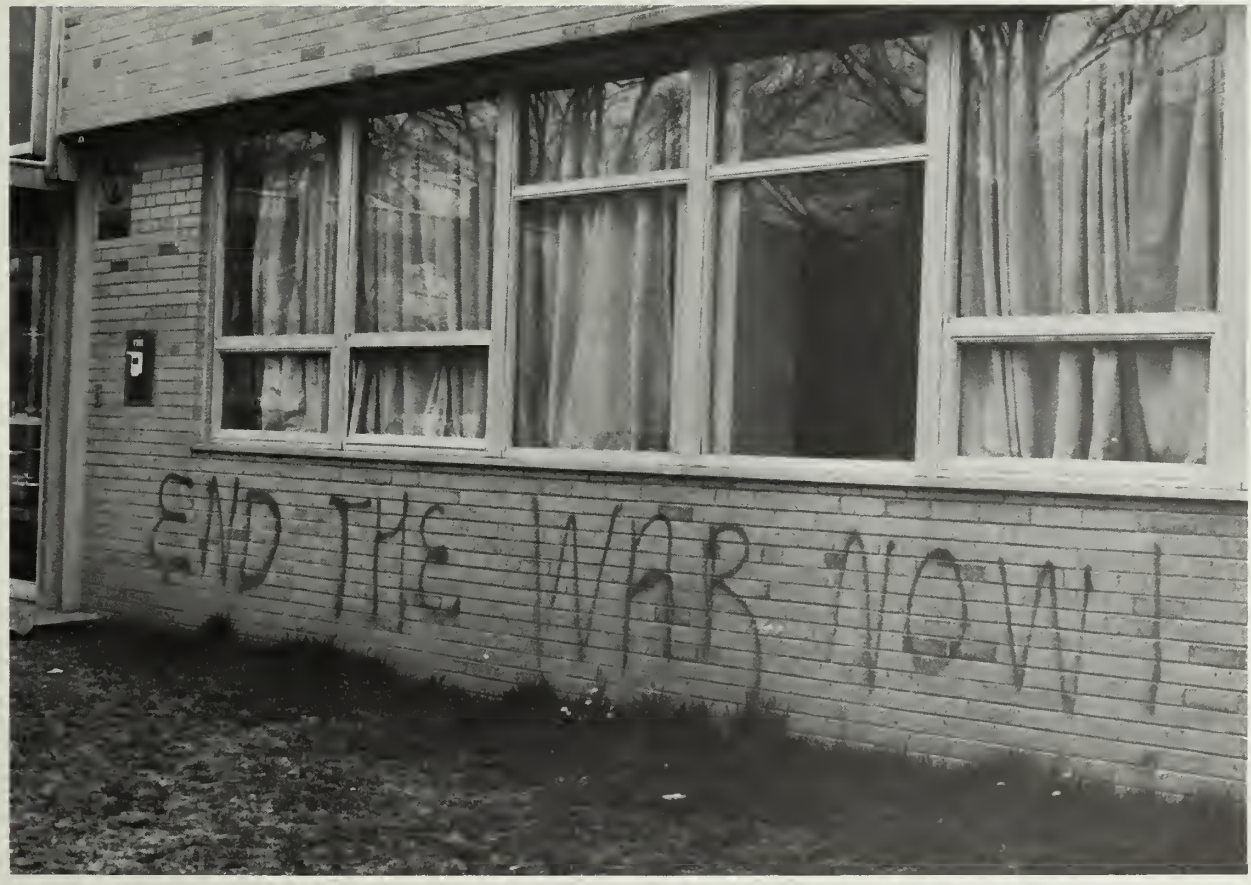
Will it be enough
To stop a war?



END THE WAR NOW!

In a world which is doing everybody else –

true lovers in each happening of their hearts live longer than all which and every who; despite what fear denies, what hope asserts, what falsest both disprove by proving true

(all doubts, all certainties, as villains strive and heroes through the mere mind's poor pretend —grim comics of duration: only love immortally occurs beyond the mind) such a forever is love's any now and her each here is such an everywhere, even more true would truest lovers grow if out of midnight dropped more suns than are (yes; and if time should ask into his was all shall, their eyes would never miss a yes)

I only want to say
If there is a way
Take this cup away from me
For I don't want to taste its poison Feel it burn me,
I have changed I'm not as sure As when we started Then I was inspired Now I'm sad and tired Listen surely I've exceeded expectations Tried for three years seems like thirty Could you ask as much from any other man?

UNDERWEAR
I didn't get much sleep last night thinking about underwear Have you ever stopped to consider underwear in the abstract When you really dig into it some shocking problems are raised Underwear is something we all have to deal with Everyone wears some kind of underwear Even Indians
wear underwear
Even Cubans
wear underwear
The Pope wears underwear I hope Underwear is worn by Negroes
The Governor of Louisiana wears underwear
I saw him on TV
He must have had tight underwear
He squirmed a lot Underwear can really get you in a bind Negroes often wear white underwear which may lead to trouble You have seen the underwear ads for men and women so alike but so different Women's underwear holds things up Men's underwear holds things down Underwear is one thing men and women have in common Underwear is all we have between us You have seen the three-color pictures with crotches encircled to show the areas of extra strength and three-way stretch promising full freedom of action Don't be deceived
It's all based on the two-party system which doesn't allow much freedom of choice the way things are set up America in its Underwear struggles thru the night

Underwear controls everything in the end Take foundation garments for instance They are really fascist forms of underground government making people believe something but the truth telling you what you can or can't do Did you ever try to get around a girdle Perhaps Non-Violent Action is the only answer Did Gandhi wear a girdle?
Did Lady Macbeth wear a girdle?
Was that why Macbeth murdered sleep?
And that spot she was always rubbing–
Was it really in her underwear?
Modern anglosaxon ladies must have huge guilt complexes always washing and washing and washing Out damned spot–rub don't blot– Underwear with spots very suspicious Underwear with bulges very shocking Underwear on clothesline a great flag of freedom Someone has escaped his Underwear
May be naked somewhere Help!
But don't worry Everybody's still hung up in it

There won't be no real revolution
And poetry still the underwear of the soul And underwear still covering a multitude of faults in the geological sense– strange sedimentary stones, inscrutable cracks!
And that is only the beginning For does not the body stay alive after death and still need its underwear or outgrow it some organs said to reach full maturity only after the head stops holding them back?
If I were you I'd keep aside an oversize pair of winter underwear Do not go naked into that good night And in the meantime keep calm and warm and dry No use stirring ourselves up prematurely
'over Nothing'
Move forward with dignity hand in vest Don't get emotional And death shall have no dominion There's plenty of time my darling Are we not still young and easy Don't shout

Every organization has problems, some more than others. The 1972 Yearbook Staff had more than its share of complications that seemed to hinder production. But throughout times of crisis the one main goal of creating a yearbook could not be overlooked.

Without the help of the following people there would not have been a 1972 yearbook. I am deeply indebted to them for their outstanding performance and dedication.

Sincerely,
Marilyn Robbins
